Dear WELSMEN,

With grateful hearts, Institutional Ministries thanks you for your ongoing support of this ministry. Your gift of $1,500 is vital to our work. Last year, 13,000 inmates as well as thousands of others in hospitals and mental health facilities had the voice of God's servant speaking to them.

The results of our work are not always seen quickly. This week, I got a text message thank you. A woman who has struggled for years as a victim of domestic violence has finally had the courage and strength to get out of the situation. She thanked me through a third party, saying, "You were the only one who believed in me."

You are part of that work, the hidden partner who enables this ministry. You allow us to reach them while in their lowest moments in life, and to lift their hearts with the comfort and hope of forgiven sin. Thank you for being our partners in ministry and for bringing this great blessing to many!

Yours in our Savior,
